It is not necessary for E. B. Warner to publish a card stating that he will, as county treasurer, obey the laws of Nebraska. Mr. Warner's honesty is not doubted by the voters of Lincoln county.

The principal reason why Judge Neville will not be re-elected will be because he lacks enough votes. Men who sell their political birthright for a mess of pottage soon lose their hold upon the people.

The third week of the county campaign opens with brilliant-hued prospects for a complete republican victory—a victory so complete that the populists will not be in condition to keep up a party organization.

The democrats are still in search of a "good western man" for a presidential candidate; and the fact still stares them in the face that they can't find one outside of the republican party.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Those "trades" which Colonel Ellingham says the republican candidates are making are simple imaginations concocted in the Colonel's fertile brain. It is not necessary for republicans to trade; they can elect the entire ticket without resorting to such tactics.

AFTER the second week in January next there will be two republican members on the board of county commissioners and extravagant expenditures along certain lines will cease. Populist favoritism during the past four years has cost the county thousands of dollars.

Up to the hour of going to press sheriff Miller and county clerk Burritt had not circulated several thousand cards stating that during their incumbency of office they had obeyed the laws of the state. This is an oversight which Colonel Ellingham should look up without delay.

REPUBLICANS who expect to vote for Maxwell because he is a republican, should stop to consider that he supported Holcomb for supreme judge two years ago, and for governor one year ago. Judge Maxwell is not a republican, and is not entitled to the support of members of that party.

THE prohibitionists are generally a little slow in politics, but as a rule they are not quite so bad as those of Chester county. Pennsylvania, who nominated Elijah Penypacker for surveyor last week, and the next day after the convention discovered that their candidate had been dead for eight months.

MR. BUCHANAN has never publicly denied the charge that he became a populist solely for the sake of obtaining office. Should he make such a denial, we will be pleased to publish a little conversation which took place in the county clerks office during the summer of 1891 while Mr. Buchanan was still serving as a republican clerk.

THE editor of the Era thinks THE TRIBUNE is paying him as much attention as though he were a candidate for office. To be honest, Colonel, you and the candidates on your ticket are about the only pops left in the county, and in making an attack on your party, you necessarily come in for a share of the attention. It is not because you are a particular bright journalist or a successful politician.

FATHER SPAETH, of St. Joseph church, Port Huron, must have misrepresented the spirit of the Catholic church when he requested the Grand Army men who acted as pallbearers at a funeral to leave their badges outside of the church. Religion has never put up a bar against patriotism, and there were too many good Catholics in the Union armies for that church to oppose their wearing the G. A. R. button wherever they will. Father Spaeth is probably less acquainted with the significance of the G. A. R. badge than are native-born priests, and Bishop Foley says that he has made an egregious blunder.—Inter Ocean.

THE TRIBUNE is not "a mouth-piece for a few designing politicians," the Era to the contrary, notwithstanding. THE TRIBUNE is a republican newspaper that supports the principles of the republican party because it believes those principles are the best for the whole people; it supports republican nominees because they are best fitted to fill the offices to which they aspire. In attacking Butler Buchanan for his display of I-am-holier-than-thou principle, it does not lose its standing in the community, for the people are not with Buchanan in his pharisaical exhibition. THE TRIBUNE proved the untruthfulness of the Era's boast that Newell Barritt is an infallible county clerk, and the Era does not deny the instance cited. It is the truth that hurts, and this is why the Era whines.

FROM the frequent slurs the Era throws at Judge Hinman, it is evident that the members of the pop party feel very sore because the Judge has deserted them. But Judge Hinman is not alone in this move; there are hundreds of voters in Lincoln county who will this fall follow his example by leaving the party which promised such brilliant reforms but has failed to accomplish anything. The people are pretty well convinced by this time that all needed reforms—and we admit there are such—can only be accomplished by and within the republican party. The populist party has been in existence sufficiently long, and in some instances has had the power, to make a record for good, but it has signally failed to do so. It cannot, therefore, expect to retain those members who joined it under the impression that good would result from the organization of the party.

ATTORNEY-General Dawes improved his time well in painting the portraits of the pops of Kansas and Nebraska, but could not get all the colors laid on in the space of an hour or two. He was obliged to content himself with a few quick strokes concerning the wholesale plunder of the taxpayers in the various state institutions of Kansas when he arrived at that point. But everything he said on that subject has been proven and on pop testimony. The story of the robberies came out about the close of the Lewelling administration on account of the factional fight over the stealings. Mrs. Lease and a number of other leading lights in the party were the witnesses.

It is not improbable that something of the kind is being attempted in this state. It is more than hinted that the present lawless administration of the penitentiary by the governor and his warden has two objects in it. The first will be a projected report launched just before election to show that the expenses of running the institution is little or nothing under the present regime. To be followed later by a large bill of "claims" to the next legislature for recouping the parties in charge for expenses that are for the time being hidden away for political purposes.

THE pop statesman looks ahead no farther than his nose. To capture an office or two as he flies by false representations is the height of his ambition and he cares nothing for developments "after election." Nebraska may expect some rare and racy roorbacks from pop headquarters in a few days. After these have been exploded for transient effect the "pen" will be handed over to the board of public lands and buildings for the remainder of the Holcomb term. It would have been so handed over a month or two ago were it not for the hope that some campaign thunder could be sprung on the people a week before election by a fraudulent report of the administration of that institution in violation of the act of the legislature of '94.—State Journal.

THE STATE PRESS. Brer. Rosewater is now roasting Land Commissioner Russell for purchasing an electric light plant for the Grand Island soldiers' homes at less than half the amount that the legislature appropriated for the purpose. Rosy is bound to be dissatisfied with anything that the state board of lands and buildings may do. It's a clear case of "be darned if you do and darned if you don't."—Red Cloud Argus.

THE Fremont Leader is a pop paper that is an ardent supporter of Judge Maxwell, and in its last issue it presents about five thousand reasons why the judge will be elected. We can advance one reason why the judge won't be elected that will demolish the entire five thousand. The people won't vote for him. They don't take kindly to the conduct of this gay and giddy young judge who was a republican until he could use the party no longer, and who then became a pop. The editors who are frantically supporting him will have to get away with a great quantity of crow after a while.—Beatrice Express.

Judge Grimes' nomination for judge of this district adds another strong spoke to the republican wheel of fortune this fall. He has filled some important offices with honor to himself and credit to his party and friends. Every true republican will stick to the ticket this fall for we have all had enough of the effects of republicans straggling off after false theories and visionary leaders. Republicans who expect to be found on the republican roll-book after victory must stand by their colors on the battle field. Stick to your ticket republicans and receive your full share of the honors of this and next fall's grand victory.—Kimball Observer.

GIGANTIC LINE OF FIRE ISLANDS. Scare of Volcanoes in the Aleutian Chain Actively at Work. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The revenue cutter Commodore Perry has returned from the Northern sea, where she has been confronted each night for weeks by a gigantic line of fire. As Captain Smith expresses it, "the devil's stokers have been stirring up a clond of steam of flames that is supposed to be thousands of feet under the Bering's bed, and as a consequence fully 30 of the 40 volcanoes in the Aleutian chain are now active."

The line of islands lying between the Bering and Pacific ocean belong to the United States, and on them are probably the only active volcanoes lying within United States territory. Much has been written of Bogashav islands, which have been throwing up a clond of steam at times for years, but it was supposed that all other peaks on this singular line of islands were extinct craters only. Now as far as the eye can reach from any point in the Bering sea, adjacent, or even at a distance from the famous seal islands, the rising smoke and steam can be seen in both directions. The eruption is general and so very lively that at night the fiery columns take on the reflections of the fires deep in the earth beneath the craters. No where else on the globe can such a scene be witnessed.

SABULA POISONING CASE. Trichina in Hastily Cooked Ham Caused the Seven Deaths. CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—It was announced today that it has been determined by the strictest medical authority that seven of the Sabula, Ia., poisonings, which led to the seven deaths of the guests at the wedding of John W. Taplin and Anna Gage Sept. 11. Dr. Lecont's decision in the matter as to the cause of the deaths and infection, which was at first thought to be wholesale poisoning, settles beyond a doubt that the ham hastily cooked for the wedding supper caused all the suffering.

CASHER IS A DEFAULTER. State Bank at Fort Scott Fails to Open Its Doors. FORT SCOTT, Kan., Oct. 14.—A sensation was created here when Vice President J. J. Stewart of the State bank of this city posted the following notice at the hour of opening:

"This bank is closed subject to the order of the state bank commissioner. Depositors will be paid in full. The failure to open is caused by the default of the cashier. A large crowd of excited depositors gathered around the bank doors, which caused the situation. The cashier, J. R. Colehan, has had the utmost confidence of all. He has been cashier since the bank was organized in 1883. Last Wednesday he left town, telling a reporter he was going to his home in Jerseyville, Ill., where his wife is visiting.

SWITCHMEN IN SESSION IN OMAHA. Union of North America Begins Its Deliberations. OMAHA, Oct. 14.—The first of the morning's program of the Switchmen's Union of North America was a parade from the Millard hotel at 10 o'clock to Creighton hall, where the opening speeches were made.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. G. W. Swartz, followed by an address of welcome by Mayor Bemis. Owing to the lateness of the hour Grand Master Sweeney of Jersey City cut short his remarks, only stating that "the union is now on its feet and has recognition as a union of honorable motives, desiring conference and arbitration and never a strike."

CLOSED BY THE CREDITORS. Day Goods House of N. B. Falconer Goes to the Wall. OMAHA, Oct. 14.—The dry goods house of N. B. Falconer was closed this morning in deference to the demands of creditors. It is not expected that there will be any extensive losses, as the local creditors were secured by Mr. Falconer before the crash came. A few of the outside creditors may be left in the lurch, as it was impossible to tell this morning just how far the assets would go.

SPLIT ON CHURCH UNITY. Subject Comes to the Front in the Episcopal Convention. TWO REPORTS PRESENTED. Minority Opposed to the Amendment. Final Adjournment Fixed For Tuesday, October 22—Proceedings in the House of Bishops.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—The subject of church unity came to the front almost at the opening of the session of the Episcopal house of deputies today. A report was presented by a majority of the committee on amendments to the constitution, presenting an amendment empowering a bishop to recognize congregations outside the Episcopal church and take them under his special care, provided such congregation subscribe to the Episcopal creed, in which case it need not necessarily be confirmed.

A minority report, signed by six members of the committee, was presented by Rev. J. J. Faude of Minneapolis. The minority opposed the amendment because it touched the book of common prayer, gave bishops the right to set aside the customs and canons of the church, even gave a bishop power to celebrate mass if a congregation desired without confirmation, would alienate many from the church and had no compensating advantages.

The report called attention to the fact that there had been absolutely no response to the advance made by the church toward unity in the Chicago Lambeth declaration, and that this move was premature. Even if it passed, the minority believed that few congregations would avail themselves of the privilege. The whole matter was made a special order.

The committee on unfinished business offered a resolution for final adjournment on Tuesday, Oct. 22, which was adopted. In the house of bishops, Bishop Garrett of northern Texas presented a memorial asking that the missionary jurisdiction of northern Texas be erected into a diocese. The order of the day, the erection of the missionary district of Duluth in Northern Minnesota, was then taken up.

CHINESE BEATLES IN COURT. ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—The nine Chinese beatles who were taken from the Chinese village at the exposition last week on the grounds that they were brought to this country and detained for immoral purposes were before Judge Newman on habeas corpus at the instance of two laundresses in the city who declared that the women were held as slaves at the exposition. The girls, who said that they were actresses in China and hold similar positions in the Chinese village here, testified that they all came to this country voluntarily. Judge Newman remanded the girls into the custody of the concessionaries.

Y., Oct. 14.—A rumor is current that detectives have traced the murderer of Mrs. Sherman and Miss Davis in Busti last December to the hands of Emmett Bittles and three companions, who with him were arrested and convicted of torturing an old woman near Union City, Pa. STORY OF THE STOKES HANGING. Facts of the Alleged Courtmartial as Told by Dr. Michaux.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes an interview with Dr. Michaux, the Belgian official who is said to have been the only European witness of the trial and execution by hanging of Stokes, the English trader, who was executed by order of Captain Lothaire, the Belgian commander at Lindi, Congo Free State. Dr. Michaux is quoted as saying that on Jan. 15 of the present year Stokes was brought before an alleged courtmartial, Captain Lothaire composing the entire court, and he and the doctor being the only witnesses present. The only witnesses were a few Arabs, who stated they had purchased rifles from Stokes. The trial lasted between one and two hours, after which Captain Lothaire announced that Stokes was sentenced to death and that he would be executed on the following day.

Continuing, Dr. Michaux is quoted as saying: "All my intercessions were futile. Captain Lothaire refused to grant even a few days' reprieve. At 5 o'clock the next morning a servant called me and informed me that Stokes was dead. I rose hurriedly, thinking that Stokes had been stricken with apoplexy, or that he had poisoned himself, and I was started to find a gallow and a new grave. Stokes had been executed and buried while I slept. As to the question of his guilt or otherwise I must be silent."

KAFFIR CRAZE ON THE WANE. London Investors Turning Their Gaze From South Africa to America.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Among the passengers on the St. Louis was John A. McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance company. In speaking of the craze over the Kaffir mining shares in London, Paris and Berlin, Mr. McCall said: "The mad rush for shares in the South African mines by London investors was the most astonishing thing in the way of speculation I have ever seen. The purchasers were like so many hungry wolves who could not be fed fast enough. There seemed to be very little effort on the part of the investors to make inquiries about what they were buying. Everybody was buying and everybody did what everybody else was doing. I remember one instance. The so-called king of the Kaffirs, Barney Barnato, who was once, I believe, a circus performer, announced in London the opening of a new mine in the Transvaal, called 'The Coffin.' It was, I believe, about seven feet long and four feet deep. No one in London knew anything about the 'mine,' but the shares were put upon the market, and in no time they were at a fabulous premium.

"Of course, this is merely public speculation, and it is only a matter of time when the bubble will burst. The bursting has got to come, and when the reaction sets in it will be, in my opinion, in favor of American securities. Financiers in London are already beginning to turn their gaze from South Africa to America."

SOCIALISM A MENACE. Emperor William on the Murder of Herr Schwartz by a Workman.

STRASBURG, Oct. 14.—The governor general of Alsace Lorraine, Prince Hohenzollern-Langenburg, has received the following telegram from Emperor William regarding the murder on Tuesday last of Herr Schwartz, a wealthy mill owner of Mulhausen, who was stabbed to death by an Alsatian spinster named Andreas Meyer, who afterwards committed suicide by shooting himself: "I have just learned of the atrocious murder of Herr Schwartz, the manufacturer of Mulhausen, and I beg your highness to express sincere condolence to the unhappy widow in my name and of the empire. This makes one more victim of the revolutionary agitation kindled by socialists. Would that our people aroused themselves to combat it."
